Troytown Campsite on the island of St Agnes is one of the most beautiful locations in Scilly and a great place to stay for the Gig World Championships. On the campsite you will be among other rowers and enthusiasts, enjoying the action and having a relaxing holiday in a unique setting.

Wake up to the sound of the sea, spend your days out on the water, then after some alfresco dining, watch the sunset from your tent and count shooting stars in the night sky.

St Agnes boasts a fantastic pub - the Turks Head - a great place to meet, eat, drink, celebrate, commiserate and rest aching muscles after a days racing. Boats run frequently between the islands, connecting you with all the action and entertainment on St Marys.

St Agnes is the perfect place to relax and unwind. If you love the outdoors and adventure, this island has a rugged, natural landscape to explore. The clear waters are perfect for snorkelling, kayaking, fishing and swimming, and the beaches have beautiful white sand and are great for rock-pooling or just sitting and watching the ocean. Why not stay on for a few days and make a holiday of it?
